CHATHAM FAMILY TREE

FROM

JOHN WILLIAM CHATHAM AND REBECCA WHITE UNION

NOTE

THE BOOTH AND THE CHATHAM FAMILIES ARE RELATED IN TWO WAYS, AS FOLLOWS:

1. REBECCA WHITE CHATHAM, THE WIFE OF JOHN WILLIAM CHATHAM, WAS THE SISTER OF BENJAMIN WOFFORD WHITE; BENJAMIN WOFFORD WHITE WAS THE HUSBAND OF ELIZABETH (OR ELIZA) CHATHAM. BENJAMIN WOFFORD AND ELIZABETH (OR ELIZA) CHATHAM WHITE WERE THE PARENTS OF CLEMENTINE WHITE, WHO MARRIED W.T. BOOTH;

2. BEN WOFFORD CHATHAM, A SON OF JOHN WILLIAM AND REBECCA CHATHAM, MARRIED CORINNE BOOTH, A SISTER OF W.T. BOOTH.

INTRODUCTORY COMMENTS TO CURRENT VERSION OF W.T. AND CLEMENTINE BOOTH GENEALOGICAL STUDY

JAN LUNDY-IUFER, OF SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, THE GREAT-GREAT GRANDDAUGHTER OF W.T. AND CLEMENTINE BOOTH, THE GREAT GRANDDAUGHTER OF IDA BOOTH AND LEROY FOWLER AND THE GRANDDAUGHTER OF OPAL FOWLER AND BILLY LUNDY RESEARCHED, COMPILED AND ORGANIZED THE VAST MAJORITY OF THESE MATERIALS OVER MORE THAN A TWENTY YEAR PERIOD.

JAN CONTACTED ME IN THE SPRING OF THIS YEAR TO ASK IF I WAS INTERESTED IN WORKING ON THE BOOTH FAMILY GENEALOGY PROJECT. BECAUSE MY FATHER, WILLIAM BOOTH ROBERTS, A NATIVE OF ROSE HILL, DIED IN 1955, WHEN I WAS 13, I HAD LOST CONTACT WITH MANY OF THE BOOTH FAMILY RELATIVES. HOWEVER, I HAVE MANY, MANY HAPPY MEMORIES OF WEEKENDS AND LONG SUMMER DAYS SPENT WITH VARIOUS BOOTH FAMILY RELATIVES IN ROSE HILL WHEN I WAS A CHILD, AND I HAD ALWAYS WANTED TO FIND A WAY TO GO BACK INTO THE BOOTH FAMILY PAST. JAN PROVIDED THAT OPPORTUNITY. I, TOO, AM A DESCENDANT OF W.T. AND CLEMENTINE BOOTH, WHO WERE MY GREAT-GRANDPARENTS, ONE OF THEIR OTHER DAUGHTERS, ELIZA, WHO MARRIED THOMAS GLOVER ROBERTS OF ROSE HILL, WAS MY GRANDMOTHER.

AS TO THE MORE CURRENT ROSE HILL CONNECTION, OLIVIA FOWLER CONKLIN AND OWEN FOWLER, ALSO CHILDREN OF IDA BOOTH AND LEROY FOWLER, WERE MY FATHER'S FIRST COUSINS. WHEN WE VISITED ROSE HILL IN THE 1940'S AND EARLY 1950'S, WE STAYED AT BOTH OF THEIR HOMES.

TO HELP GET THE BALL ROLLING EVEN FURTHER, I ASKED JAN IN JUNE, 1996 IF SHE WOULD BE INTERESTED IN VISITING ROSE HILL AND THE SURROUNDING AREA IN AN EFFORT TO GATHER MORE INFORMATION. WE MADE THE TRIP IN AUGUST, VISITING EIGHT CEMETERIES IN JASPER AND CLARK COUNTIES, VISITING WITH PEOPLE IN THE ROSE HILL AREA AND

SPENDING A FULL DAY AT THE MISSISSIPPI STATE ARCHIVES IN JACKSON, WHERE, AMONG OTHER THINGS, WE LOCATED AND COPIED ALL OF W.T. BOOTH'S CIVIL WAR RECORDS.

THIS VERSION OF THE BOOTH FAMILY GENEALOGICAL STUDY IS INCOMPLETE; AS IS USUAL IN MANY GENEALOGIES, IT CONTAINS ERRORS, EITHER BECAUSE THE ORAL HISTORY THAT WAS THE SOURCE OF THE INFORMATION WAS INCORRECT OR A PREDECESSOR OR THE OFFICIAL REPOSITORY OF INFORMATION MADE A MISTAKE IN THE RECORDING OF THE INFORMATION. ALSO, BECAUSE THE COURTHOUSE IN PAULDING, WHICH WAS THE COUNTY SEAT FOR THAT PORTION OF JASPER COUNTY, BURNED IN THE 1930'S, ALL RECORDS WERE LOST, AND TRACING OR VERIFYING SOME OF THIS INFORMATION HAS BEEN DIFFICULT.

EITHER WAY, ONE OF THE PURPOSES OF THIS VERSION, OR "DRAFT", IS TO INVITE INPUT FROM THOSE REVIEWING THIS DOCUMENT, BOTH TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND TO CORRECT INFORMATION IN THE EXISTING DOCUMENT.

PLEASE SEND YOUR INFORMATION AND/OR CORRECTIONS TO:

EXAMPLES OF FURTHER INFORMATION WE KNOW TO BE NEEDED TO VERIFY ITS USE AS A PERMANENT PART OF THIS RECORD OR CORRECTIONS THAT NEED TO BE MADE TO THIS VERSION ARE:

Chatham

A. Whether W.B. Booth is in some way related to Salvation Army Founder, William Booth, needs verification and/or further explanation;

B. Whether W.T. Booth was in any way related to John Wilkes Booth has not been verified, or, if you will, the dots connected up further up the family tree;

C. The migration pattern of the Booth and White families appears to be from South Carolina to Alabama to Mississippi, not from Maryland to Georgia to Mississippi.

D. This version needs updating to include current generations and information regarding these people;

E. Information is now available regarding W.B. Booth's Civil War involvement and will be included in any updates. For example, we now know that he served as an enlisted man in Company I, 20th Mississippi Volunteers-Infantry, C.S.A.

If anyone has additional information that can be included here, it is welcomed. Obviously, much work remains before we can declare this study complete; however, once it is done, copies will be made available to those interested.

Jan deserves a special note of thanks for starting this project, and most importantly, for bringing the Booth family together.

When Tennessee as the Southwest Territory was separated from North Carolina in early 1790, a small part of Tennessee's Washington County remained in North Carolina and was statutorily outside any North Carolina county during the 1790 census. Whether this sparsely populated area was enumerated was not determined.

CENSUS AVAILABILITY:

Federal census extant for all counties except Caswell, Granville, and Orange, shown as "lost" on map.

*NOTE:

The name Dobbs was dropped when that county was split into Glasgow and Lenoir counties in 1791. Glasgow was then renamed Greene in 1799.

Abstracts by Margaret Chatham Ammons

Source: Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications in the National Archives. National Genealogical Society. Washington D. C., 1976.
[Note: In file numbers S=Survivor, W=Widow, R=Rejected]

JOHN CHATHAM, file *S41475, served from Virginia. He was born about 1758, rendered service in Virginia between 1777 and 1783. Made application for pension between 1818 and 1820 in Person Co., NC. Wife was Elender, b. April 1760; his children living in household were Elizabeth b. about 1800, Elender b. about 1802, and James b. about 1804. Affidavit of John Faddis of nearby Orange Co., NC, says that he met John Chatham in confinement aboard Brit. prison ship in Charleston Harbor after the battle of Eutaw Springs.

WILLIAM CHATHAM, file *R1895, served from Maryland. Born 25 June 1760 Charles Co. MD. He makes reference to Port Tobacco in Charles Co. Moved from Charles Co. about 1787 to Orange Co., NC, where he made pension application in 1836. Character references were George A. Swift (local clergyman) and John Foster.
[Possibly died before application process was successfully completed??]
[Possible kin James Chatham of Port Tobacco, MD and Perryville, KY?]
[Possible kin Aquilla Chittam (see file below) MD Rev. service?]

WILLIAM CHATHAM, file *W6663; Bounty Land Warrant 13195-160-55. Enlisted/served five years in Pennsylvania (1777-1782) under his father Capt. He was married 29 Jan. 1795 Northumberland Co., PA by Episcopalian clergyman Taylor to Nancy Shade (b. 4 Apr. 1776). William was allowed pension on his application which originated in Seneca Co., NY, 16 Oct. 1850; Nancy later pensioned as widow. Many char. references in file. Residences mentioned: Chester Co. He died 23 Jan. 1818, and Judith applied for pension in Charlotte Co. 11 Dec. 1839. Elkanah H. Hello, Ch(e)atham researchers, and happiest season's greetings!

My good correspondent Russell Chatham of Baird, TX, found a new book on the shelves at Clayton Library in Houston:

Amy W. Sanders Madison County GA Probate Records 1812-ca. 1870, 1994.

He sent me the Ch(e)atham citations from the book. In early June, I wrote Madison County Clerk of Probate, PO Box 147, Danielsville GA 30633-0147 for copies of the documents. I didn't hear from them till the second week in November! Ms. Sanders' book may have generated more correspondence than the staff could handle in timely fashion.

I have the copies back, have transcribed them, and am forwarding them for your research interest. Please, if you'd like copies of the original handwritten items, don't hesitate to ask. Any notes in italics are mine.

Have a happy holiday, and good luck with your ongoing research!

CHATTAM - TEMPLETON

A Genealogical Query for Publication and/or Filing

Robert and Mary Chattam Templeton sold their land on Duncan's Creek, Laurens District, SC in several parcels, 1804 - 1818. By 1808 they were in Dearborn County, Indiana Territory. Mary's relinquinshment of dower for one of the deeds was certified by (kinsman?) John Templeton, Justice of the Peace, Dearborn Co. Did other relatives move with Robert and Mary Chattam Templeton to Indiana Territory? Templetons of Laurens District, SC were Presbyterians. My particular interest is to establish family origins of Mary Chattam Templeton. Can share information on many lines, surnames Chatham, Cheatham, Chittam, etc. My line is from Robert and Nancy _?_ Chatham; he died intestate 1827 Abbeville District, SC, leaving descendants in present Greenwood County, SC. Will refund respondents' postage and copy expenses.

Note 1: Many other Templeton deeds are recorded in Laurens District, SC, both earlier and later than these. --MCA

Note 2: See cemetery records, page 3. The early Templetons of Laurens District appear to have been solidly Presbyterian. Since there are some Roberts and Marys among them, I considered whether the Templetons of Dearborn County, Indiana Territory, may have returned to Laurens District. However, none of these individuals were, by their tombstone records, of age to have been party to all four of the deeds. --MCA

Dear Jean,

Thanks for the books I sure appreci getting them. I enjoyed getting out a copying the grave markers. I am enclosing a check of twenty-five dollars my appreciation for the books. I didn't expect to get them free.

I just had yesterday some Rob Company for a few minutes. One ask about Josiah Breland. I thin he is a descendent of Jesse Brel a brother of Hiram. He came to Mis just after 1820 and settled on Black Creek in South east Perry Co. Miss. would like if you would look in your Perry Co. Cemetery book if you know his burial place or what Brelands buried in south east Perr Co. Cemetery. Also she ask if I knew who Ann's maiden name was. The wife of Asa Breland buried in a family Cemetery at Neely Miss. I looked in family Sheets of Mr. Mills you sent me but it didn't tell her maiden name. She thought it might be Bond. Do you know who the parents of Asa Breland

Check your Cemetery book of the GreenLodge cemetery, she said you had Titled it Cooley Cemetery If so you could write to ones already bought books and ask them to make the correction. I have seen this ask of buyers of books. I thought you did a very good job of it. You could just wonder what they would look like if I had did them.

As Robertson means son of Robert do you think Sarah Roberts Stricklan could have been the Samuel Robertson ~~s~~ daughter you have in one of the cemeteries in your book. You said someone said she the daughter of Samuel Roberts and Virginia Wilson. In the cemetery is a Wilson Robertson.

Also she could have been a daughter of Milly Roberts. She had three daughters in 1816 and by 1820 only two daughters. All the other Roberts had a Sarah. The Drury Roberts is a Roberts name in our families. Milly could have had more older daughters. I want to think the Irwin Roberts in 1800 Census of Barnwell S.C. is her family. Her husband could have been of another Roberts family one in Ga. One son James was born in Ga. 1805 or 1806. She was in Sumter 1810. I think Winney the wife of Isaac Roberts Sr. was her mother and she came to Miss with them her relatives. I also think Winney was a Barnes before she married [redacted].

List in 1790 N.C. is a widow Winfred
Chatham next listed is Thomas Chatham then 1810 Thomas Chatham is in Sumter with Isaac Roberts family.
And by this time probably in the 1790's Isaac Sr. had married Winny. For in his family 1790 he had one daughter by 1800 census he had more daughters over 10 years old that couldn't be his.
Winny had 1790 census N.C. 2 son and 2 daughter in her family which one could be Spencer and probably Davis Chatham and Elvira and another daughter. Davis Chatham is listed next to Roberts in 1830 census and later in Jackson Co. near the Isaac and Elvira Roberts family. In 1820 Census Thomas and wife is listed in Greene Co. Miss in area with Isaac Roberts and others. In the 1816 census of Greene Co. Isaac Roberts is listed with large family. I think this is the Thomas Chatham family living in his home. By 1820 Isaac has only wife and one son. Thomas Chatham only has a wife left in his family! This is what I have figured by all the census in N.C. S.C. and Miss. The Chatham sons and daughters married the Roberts. I had heard that the old Chatham mother Came to Miss

A Roberts cousin said some Tim back that ~~Isaac Roberts Sr and a~~ two brothers was Shanghi from Wales to S.C. and settle 90 miles northwest of Charlestown S.C. Could this have been Isaac Roberts Sr. and Benjamin that is in Miss 1822 Census. He had children the same names of Isaac's and around the same age of Isaac. One is said to have raised their family in S.C. and the other in Miss. Could this be why we can't find parents of Isaac Roberts Sr. in S.C. or elsewhere?

We were across the Bay for a week the first week in Aug. haven't caught up since coming home. Excuse this writing but I did want to answer your letter and thank you for your books

Thanks and love

Dear Jean,

Thank you, thank you for your close attention to the updated charts which I enclosed with the Madison County GA CHEATHAM material. The Johnston-Allen connection on my charts is really new to me. I made a pleasure-and-research trip to Texas in Aug/Sept, connected with a third cousin on this Johns(t)on line, and combining our hearsay tradition, we were able to reconstruct the family sufficiently to recognize them in the census. Neither of us alone was able to get past our respective Johnston great grandmothers. This had been, for each of us, our shortest line. I'd been searching with too little to go on for some 15 years. Just goes to show . . . there's always hope.

More recently still, I've made contact with a Johnston cousin who's been researching the family for many years, and she believes the Johnson/Johnston families of Washington and Mobile Counties and those of Clarke County are related. She has promised to send me some of her sources, but I don't have the material yet.

Meanwhile, would you kindly let me know how I may obtain copies of the material you refer to in your note of Jan. 3 (attached)? Can you estimate copy fees? Do I need to hire an independent researcher to do the copying? I would really like to get into your collection myself, but a trip is out of the question any time soon. I am a very busy Mother of the Bride just now. Our youngest daughter is marrying mid-April another Ammons! Never fear; I had his line 6 generations without convergence before I okayed their dating. From here on out, though, I'm researching ALL Ammons families as well as All Chatham/Cheatham families.

Thanks so much, Jean, for serving as an eagle-eyed facilitator to so many of us who write Pascagoula. You're surely earning stars for your crown!

Your most respectful correspondent,

Margaret

Mrs. Arnold -

I am unable to give you the information you asked for in your recent letter because I don't have it.

My great great grandfather was Spencer Chatham who married Elizabeth Roberts in Sumter District, S.C. in the early 1800's, they came to Greene Co. Miss. about 1812-14 along with several Roberts families. In the early 1830's Spencer Chatham & his family moved to Jasper Co, Miss. - this is my home county. In the 1820 census there were two other Chathams in Greene Co. - Thomas and Darius. Darius moved to Lauderdale Co., Miss., probably in the 1820's; Thomas, may have moved to Jones Co. Miss. in the 1820's. Some years ago I had correspondence with two Darius descendants. The only thing they knew about Darius was that he got married in Putnam Co. Ga., apparently a stop over on the way to Miss..

Also in the 1820 census Claiborn Chatham is shown in Jackson Co. Miss.. at that time George Co. did not exist so Greene Co. and Jackson Co. shared a common line; thus, Claiborn could have been living near to the Greene Co. Chathams in 1820.

I gather from your letter you are a descendant of Claiborn Chatham. Did Claiborn Chatham die in Jackson Co. - if

Chatham

So, can you tell me where he's buried? Do you have a record of his descendants?

I don't know what kin, if any, Spencer was to Darius, Thomas and Claiborne but I feel they must have been related in some way. I have done research on Chathams in Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland. I tend now to think Spencer's Father was a John Chatham that lived in Western N. C. in the 1750's, 60's, 70's, 80's (?) & that they originally came from Maryland by way of Augusta Co., Virginia but this is only a guess — a good guess at best as records are few and far between for the period.

I have collected a good bit on the Spencer Chatham descendants but have never organized it into any kind of format. For the last 15 years I've not been doing genealogical research because I've been looking after my mother. She is now in Plaza Nursing Center in Pascagoula. My only activity now is answering letters such as yours.

I'd be interested in anything you can tell me about Claiborne Chatham — where he lived, who he married, his children, where he's buried etc.. When time permits I hope to become active once again in genealogy.

Sincerely,
Lewis L. Boutwell

Dear Ms. Strickland,

I am working on a book chronicling the descendants of my great-great grandfather, Thomas Chatham, born 1801 in SC, married in AL to Tabitha Elkins and moved to Montgomery County, Texas in 1834, later to die there in 1890. I know there are several Chatham researchers that have been corresponding with you for a long while and I would like to add my name to your list of correspondents.

I am enclosing a chronology of my Thomas Chatham (1801)that I have developed. I do not know who his father is at this point except that Thomas said he was born in SC in 1801. It appears that he had a brother named Noah, who may have been the one in the Chesterfield Co.,SC census, but was surely the Noah in the 1830 Tuscaloosa Co., AL census and was his bondsman in his wedding. He had a sister, the one in the 1852 letter from Hancock Co., MS who was married to James Warden. I have a copy of a bill of sale from a William White, a merchant in Marengo Co., AL who lived next to Thomas' father-in-law, Samuel Elkins, in the latter part of 1829, that clearly lists the notation "Jr" at the top of the page. This indicates to me that, at least, White was attempting to distinguish my Thomas from his father, or at least an older man. I have enclosed a copy of the bill of sale. This bill of sale also includes two names, a Wade, who I believe is the brother of Tabitha Elkins Chatham, and the name Mariah. It is my supposition that the Mariah may have been Thomas' mother who is the 60-70 year old woman living in Thomas' household in the Marengo Co. 1830 census. The fact that there was no older man living in that household in the 1830 census may indicate that the father died in 1829 or early in 1830. You will note that Thomas had a daughter, Mariah, born about 3 years later. For the record, there was a Mariah also involved in the Walker Chatham family who lived in Demopolis at the same time as Thomas.

I have not been able to do any documentation regarding Thomas' whereabouts between his birth and the time of his marriage in Marengo Co., AL. His sister, Martha who married James Warden is listed as born in GA in the census. Martha and James Warden's daughter Elvira, married Stephen Marson in Hancock Co. MS. I have not been able to place any connection as yet to the Spencer Chatham group, but that is certainly a possibility. There was an Elvira Chatham Roberts associated with the Spencer Chatham - Roberts group, Mrs. Margaret Ammons suggests that this may be a sister of Thomas. I am enclosing also a little work that I have done on the Warden family.I would appreciate it if you would mark this a WORK IN PROGRESS. It may contain many errors Since that group is located very close to you, and there are still descendants still in the Picayune area, there may be some interest in working with that line. If so, I would be interested in what they find. There are Wardens in Franklin Co., GA in the early 1800s that may be the same family as those in Hancock County. The sketchy information that I have been able to piece together is that Martha Chatham Warden is most likely older than Thomas. The census indicates that she was born in GA. If I could find this marriage or any indication where the Warden was associated with the Chathams that may help me find the true parents of Thomas. I have recently heard of the "Cuban" papers that contain some census data of the Spanish West Florida area. These are unavailable to me presently. I would be very interested to know if there was any information about Wardens or Chathams in those papers between 1801 and 1824.

Thomas Chatham was associated with the family of Zacariah Landrum in Marengo County, AL and in Montgomery County, TX. Gandrud indicates that Zacharia Landrum of Washington County, Mississippi Territory bought property in Marengo County, AL in 1813. I was in Montgomery, AL last week and checked the Mississippi Territory and found Zacharia Landrum in the 1806 and 1810 census in that county, but no mention is found of any Chathams. They obviously met in Marengo County, AL.

Best wishes,

Don Pugh

Dear Darla,

Thank you for answering my Query on the CHATHAM family. My mother's mother was a CHATHAM, Ellen Viola (Chatham) Bradley. She married Isaac Bradley. Grandmother Bradley was the daughter of James W. Chatham and Elizabeth "Bettie" Lucinda Gentry #30 & 31 on the enclosed chart. Mr. John Lillibridge compiled the chart. His son married my first cousin's daughter. I could put my name at #3, (my cousin) and my mother at #7 where my aunt Stella's name is and just double each number, you can follow my Bradley and Chatham lines. Aunt Stella married a Chatham, so there are two Chatham lines. They connect several generations back. I have highlighted my lines.

Your letter came when I was getting ready to leave for vacation. I didn't mean to take so long to answer your letter. My Chathams came from Virginia to Franklin Co. GA. Eppes Chatham left a Will. His wife was Sarah Chaffin. Eppes was a Revolutionary soldier. Four of his children married into the PAYNE family. My great-great-granddad, John W. Chatham married Rhoda Lacey. I know nothing about the LACEY line. John W. was the son of Chaffin Chatham who was the son of Eppes. The enclosed outline gives the dates etc.

Thanks for writing. I hope your health improves.

Sincerely,

To: Chatham, Cheatham, Chittam, etc., researchers

Dear Jean,

I started a "Quickie to Mickey," to thank her for more "Chatham Chatter." What started as a single postcard wound up as a "bouquet" of five, but that seemed appropriate, after all, in view of her Chatham efforts. Following is the substance of these post cards, to catch everyone up on my recent research, considerable in effort but trifling so far in results.

On Hezekiah Davis-Polly Chatham who married 1818 Putnam Co. GA: I wrote Dr. Hearn who placed a Family Puzzlers query mentioning DAVIS of Putnam Co. He knew nothing of Hezekiah & Polly, but passed my information to a local (Putnam Co) researcher who, in turn, wrote to offer me help. I took him up, though I have little hope of a significant "find;" Russell Chatham went there and had a look some years ago. Best hope would be newly-discovered or newly-indexed county records to prove relationships among Walker, George K., Darius, and Polly Chatham, all of whom married in that county within a few years' time . . . or family records of descendants in a local archive.

The Putnam Co. package has arrived in the mail even as I typed. I don't recognize any important discoveries, but copies are enclosed for Russell Chatham (Walker Chatham line), Patricia Chatham (George K. Chatham line), and Virginia England (Darius Chatham line); also for Mickey Eddlemon and Lloyd Chatham, who have looked into Putnam County Chatham connections. Who else wants this package?

My research project on Hezekiah Davis (multiple individuals of this name) has grown into a huge file, and much of it probably irrelevant. While I've failed to find in it any proof or clues to the identity of Polly Chatham of Putnam County, GA, someone else might have better luck. Rather than copy the whole for everyone, I'm planning to package it as a circulating resource. Let me know if you want a turn with this material.

On Templeton-Chattam: I found by chance, since of course middle names aren't indexed, the dower release of Mary Chattam (Mrs. Robert) Templeton in a deed abstract, the land on Duncan's Creek, Laurens District, SC. (Sarah Nash, Abstracts of Early Records, Laurens District, SC). Another deed made it clear that by 1808 Robt. & Mary Templeton were in Dearborn Co, Indiana Territory, but still disposing of Laurens District land. My letters to several Indiana societies and libraries, some of which voluntarily undertook brief courtesy searches of most-accessible sources, has turned up the following information:

* The couple arrived from SC 1803, locating in the part of Dearborn Co which later became Franklin.
* No CHATHAM/CHATTAM, etc. shows in proximity to Mary & Robert Templeton, but a John Chatham appears on an 1807 tax list, Posey Co, IN.
* Some Templeton descendants belong to The Society of Indiana Pioneers. A membership application shows that Robert Templeton was born Ireland 1762, lived in SC, served in the Revolution, married Mary Hannah, and applied for Rev. pension while living in Indiana. (Was Chattam, then, a previous husband, or maybe part of Mary's given name?)

I've written for a copy of the Laurens deed to confirm the CHATTAM reading in the abstract, to SC Archives for Robert Templeton's military record, and (having confirmed with the Society that he's still living) to the Templeton member of Indiana Pioneers. Note: If SC Archives doesn't have the Pension application, I'll have to write National Archives. I'm advised that they're taking many weeks just to return request forms, and I've just used my last one. If anyone can spare a copy of the National Archives' form "Request for Military Records," I can shortcut the process.

On Chatham-Gaines: Likely closer to my own Chatham line, I've been trying for years to find descendants of one Thomas Chatham whose estate (intestate) was administered 1815 Abbeville District, SC. Wife Jincy (possibly nee Drummond) was administrix until her next husband, Richard Gaines, took over the role. The only children who show in records are Benjamin and Eliza Chatham, the reference being to charges for their schooling. There may have been other, unnamed, children. From Baptist church records in the area, I knew that Richard Gaines started as a lay preacher, was later ordained or licensed, and that he and Jincy applied for letters of dismissal from their congregation in view of their forthcoming removal to GA. I've just found (in an indexed GA Baptist newspaper) obituaries for both Rev. Richard and Mrs. Jincy Gaines, 1851 and 1854 respectively, Chattooga Co, GA. Has anyone done research in this county? I'm covering the obvious resources, and welcoming suggestions.

On Chatham-Warden: I ordered the 2 paperback volumes, Mississippi Confederate Grave Registrations, by Betty C. Wiltshire. They index MS Archives file cards which have brief vital data along with locations for the gravesites of MS soldiers. The first volume, A-L (wouldn't you know?!) is temporarily out of print. Has anyone copied the CHATHAM entries from this volume? The second volume lists:

Vol. 1 came yesterday
mca

William Warden, 2nd MS Inf., 1838-1915, buried Pearl River County
Stephen Morrison, 9th MS Cav., 1832-1922, buried Pear River County

I've ordered copies of these two cards for soldiers Warden and Morrison, to see whether there's anything further of significance. I hope the latter is "Steven Marson," the son-in-law mentioned by James and Martha (Chatham?) Warden of Hancock Co, MS, in their 1852 letter to "dear brother" Thomas Chatham of Montgomery Co, TX.

Have we considered whether Martha might have been a Roberts, and half sister to Thomas Chatham? It is still, so far as I know, pure speculation that Martha Warden and Thomas Chatham fit with the Chatham-Roberts family group of Sumter, SC, and later MS. Martha and James Warden named a daughter Elvira, and that suggests the possibility of an association with Elvira Chatham who married Isaac Roberts Jr. 1807, Sumter District, SC. I understand that Roberts researchers believe Winnie (Mrs. Isaac Sr.) Roberts had Chatham children by her previous marriage. I'm still trying to discover whether/how the Chathams who moved to Montgomery AL from Sumter District, SC about 1831 or -32, were related to the Chatham-Roberts group who left Sumter 1811.

Enough for now . . .

Margaret

To: Chatham, Cheatham, Chittam, etc., researchers

Dear Jean,

All my correspondents have been so forthcoming of late that I'm having trouble keeping up my end. My recent Chatham news follows:

Joe Chatham, formerly of Salem, now Roanoke, VA, has written to advise me of his move to a retirement community. [Born 1909 Elkin NC, Joe is s/o Joe Murphy Chatham, Sr. > James Owen Chatham > Martin Chatham, 1803 VA-1873 Wilkes Co NC.] He's not actively researching, but I sent him an updated packet of charts to show what I know of descendants of Martin Chatham, and he has graciously offered to fill in some of my blanks relating to his line. Joe has a fine-tuned sense of humor; he addresses me as "Cousin Maybe." Writing during one of several deep freezes this memorable winter, and explaining his relocation, Joe quipped, "There's only one more CHATHAM in this branch . . . like the trees outside my window, this limb is laden with ice and may fall. If I find any of your roots, I'll send them along."

Russell Chatham [Marcellus D. Chatham > William. L. Chatham > James R. Chatham > Walker Chatham > George H. Ch(e)atham, 1766 VA- 1800 NC] has been in close touch with Tom B. Chatham (Jr) of Mexia TX [Thomas Beall Chatham Sr > Roland Kinchen Chatham > George Kinchen Chatham > George H. Ch(e)atham, 1766 VA - 1800 NC]. Tom has a treasury of family papers and pictures, copies of which may be available before long in the archive collections of Texas A & M, Alma Mater of both Tom and Russell. The two family historians (Russell & Tom) have discovered that the current-generation (laser) color copiers make excellent reproductions of old photos. Mary and Russell have been working with others on tombstone transcriptions, both in the field and at the organizational stage. Russell gets the folks to show up in working gear, and Mary sees to feeding the assembly. Russell is also engaged in reviewing, reorganizing and moving his research files into new space. My best wishes to Russell (and sympathy to Mary?) as this project proceeds.

Don Pugh has a fine first draft of his first chapter on descendants of Thomas Chatham [1801 SC - 1890 Montgomery Co, TX]. Don, you're putting us all to shame! An 1852 letter from James and Martha Warden of Hancock Co, MS to Thomas Chatham of Montgomery Co, TX, establishes to virtual certainty that Martha and Thomas were sister/brother. That Martha (Chatham) Warden named a daughter Elvira suggests (or does it?) two more siblings: (1) Elvira Chatham who married Isaac Roberts Jr. Sumter District SC 1807, and moved southwestward with the Chatham-Roberts group 1811, and (2) Spencer Chatham who married Mary Elizabeth Roberts and left SC in the same party 1811. (Is there positive proof that Spencer and Elvira were brother/ sister?) Finding Warden descendants with family records might answer a lot of our questions about early Chatham lines. Please keep eyes pealed for this name.

I have an early, new, unidentified Chatham woman, of SC and Indiana Territory! Quite by accident, since the index of my source shows no CHATHAM or variants, I came across a Laurens District deed 1812, dower signed by Mary Chattam Templeton. Everything I know about her to date is shown in 3 pages attached. Where can we fit her into a Chatham family??? Mickey Eddlemon, have you come across a Chatham-Templeton connection in Indiana? The queries have already gone out; cross your fingers that there's some response. Would you suggest other destinations for the query?

And re Hezekiah Davis: all the sightings I've gathered for men of this name have served only to convince me that it must have been a popular alias, like the proverbial "John Smith." He's everywhere I look! Where was he before Putnam County, GA? Where did he go? What was the relationship of his wife Polly Chatham to George, Walker, and Darius Chatham, all of whom married within a couple of years in the same county?

Chatham 117

A Putnam Co contact (he'll have local books records, etc.) may be able to help us.

Dr. Henry B. Hearn III
1206 E. Greenville Street
Anderson, SC 29621

Dear Dr. Hearn,

I saw your query in Family Puzzlers #1328: Dismukes, Davis, Cooper, Perry. Do you have further information regarding Martha's Davis family? Was she related to a Hezekiah Davis? We Chatham researchers are trying to identify the respective families of a couple who married in Putnam County 1818: Hezekiah Davis and Polly Chatham, license 22 May 1818, marriage 9 June 1818.

The following marriages also took place in Putnam County in the same era:

Walker Chatham and Sally Kindrick, license 22 May 1818, marriage 26 May 1818.
George K. Chatham and Cena Gholson, license 1 July 1815, marriage 5 July 1815.
Darias Chatham and Elizabeth Carklin, license 2 Sept 1815, marriage 5 Sept 1815

We know that Walker and George Kinchen Chatham above were brothers. We'd like to know whether Polly and Darius Chatham were also siblings, and who their parents were. I'll be grateful for any clues you may have through knowledge of the Putnam County Davis family.

Respectfully yours,

Mrs. Margaret Chatham Ammons

[Post Card from Dr. Hearn 4-14-94: Dear Mrs. Ammons, I looked through 1 1/2 inches of DISMUKES records and there was no mention of the names you sent me. Am sending your entire

Dear Jean & Pat,

From a CHATHAM correspondent in TX, I've just received a few pages copied from your recent publication Residents of the Southeastern Mississippi Territory. I'd like my own copy, and I'd appreciate a listing of your other titles available for sale. A SASE is enclosed.

Our CHATHAM research network is still trying for hard proof of connections among the following:

(1) The Chatham-Roberts group of Sumter District SC who were granted in 1811 a GA passport to pass through Creek Indian lands. The family group included Spencer Chatham, perhaps his mother and sisters, the three Roberts wives thought to have been Chathams before their marriages. Elvira Roberts' War 1812 widow's pension depositions say she was b. ca 1886-87, married 1807 Sumter Dist SC to Isaac Roberts Jr under the name Elvira Chatham . . . her maiden surname or an earlier marriage?

(2) Thomas Chatham of Montgomery County TX who received a letter in 1852 from James Warden of Hancock Co MS in which Warden conveys greetings from his wife Martha to her dear brother (Thomas Chatham). This Thomas Chatham was born in SC ca. 1801 by his TX census enumerations. James and Martha Warden had a daughter Elvira who married Steven Marson.

Thanks for your efforts to make southern MS records more accessible through publication. I look forward to hearing from you.

Respectfully,

Margaret

Mrs. Margaret Chatham Ammons

Pat, I believe you left the genealogy bulletin board on Prodigy, where we exchanged a few messages. Are you online anywhere now?

Chatham 127

As to my research of John Chittam, Revolutionary pensioner of Lincoln Co, NC, and his projected ancestral line to Phillip & Mary Chittam of Augusta Co, VA . . . Russell Chatham's notes (Chalkley's Augusta Co, VA records) show Phillip Chittam's widow Mary remarrying a William Patrick. Lewis Boutwell's notes (Holcomb's Anson Co, NC book) show a transaction on "Estate of Phillip Chittam to William Henry . . . William Henry delivered to the mother of the orphans." In answer to my queries through Old Tryon Co, NC and York Co, SC genealogical societies, I've heard from a descendant of each, William Patrick and William Henry, both of whom lived along that border area of SC/NC late 1700s. Both men are apparently well-versed in their lines, and neither can expand upon the Chittam connection. They've both encountered the "Hezekiah Davis" or "John Smith" research problem, namely multiple men of the same name in the same area as their William Patrick and William Henry ancestors. I think they're both intrigued, however, since both their lines were from Augusta Co, VA. Maybe we'll hear something more from them in future. I've also contacted a Butch Chittum of Culloden, W. Virginia, whom my brother met in the course of business. This is my one and only contemporary Chittum contact; hope something good comes of the effort.

And I've been monitoring the genealogy bulletin board on Prodigy a little more closely. Since my surnames of interest are numbering fifty-something at present, this is a time-consuming operation, and I'm not sure about the return. Like mining for gold . . . I keep hoping to strike it rich!

I have been relatively free to pursue the research lately, and I've buried myself in it INSTEAD of corresponding. Thanks for your patience, for keeping me posted with regard to your own investigations. Wishing you all best luck with your various ongoing searches . . . maybe the current IGI, all states surname Chatham, Cheatham, etc. (enclosed) will turn up some leads.

Warmest regards,

Descendant of Robert Lee Chatham TX/SC 1920-80 > Don Edmond Chatham TX 1893-1959 > Thomas Edmond Chatham TX 1867-1913 > Francis Marion Chatham SC/TX 1842-1895 > Thomas Chatham SC 1806-1886 > Robert Ch(e)atham, estate administered Abbeville Dist. SC 1827 by widow Nancy.

To: Genealogical researchers interested in the Chatham-Roberts family group of Sumter Dist. SC ca.1800-1811 and later of southern counties, MS

Recall that Elvira (Chatham) Roberts, in her widow's pension claim for Isaac [Jr] Roberts' War 1812 service, says that she and Isaac were married 1807 Sumter District SC by Underhill Ellis. In the current NC Gen. Soc. Journal, I found a reference to military service of an Underhill Ellis.

Ransom McBride, Davidson County [Tennessee] and the Cumberland Battalion, 1786-89.
Part I. NCGSJ Vol. 18, No. 4, Nov. 1992, pp. 194-204. (No mention of Underhill Ellis in Part I, but there is a William Ellis).
Part II. NCGSJ Vol. 19, No. 2, May 1993, pp. 194-204. This article establishes that:

-Underhill Ellis was a Private in Capt. Joshua Hadley's Company, his pay commencing 1 Nov 1787. [p. 90]
-Levi/Levy Ellis was a Private in same company with pay commencing 20 Sept. 1787, and was killed 15 Mar. 1789. [p. 90]
-Underhill Ellis petitioned for back pay for himself and as administrator of Levi Ellis. According to this petition, Levi Ellis had acted as a Sergeant, but was killed in service; Underhill Ellis continued to serve two years in full. [p. 92]
-Underhill Ellis made a deposition 30 Jan 1798 in Wake Co., NC, that he was the identical man who served in the Cumberland Battalion in Capt. Joshua Hadley's Company. [p. 93]

This a quick summary of the article as I understand it--Margaret Ammons

In 1787, to protect settlers in its westernmost lands (Davidson County) from Indian raids, the NC General Assembly levied taxes on those settlers and raised troops which came to be known as the Cumberland Battalion.

When the Battalion was disbanded in August 1789, the commanding officer sent his accounts to the NC Assembly for pay due the troops.

In the NC Assembly session of 1791-1792, the matter of pay for the Cumberland troops came up. Apparently no money had reached the NC Treasury from those taxes levied beginning 1787, and the lands in question were no longer part of North Carolina, so the Assembly refused to act, suggesting the accounts be sent to the US Congress.

But in 1796 The NC Treasury reported that it had received a total of L6,427 in taxes from "present state of Tennessee." The pay account amounting to an estimated L7674, the NC Assembly directed the state Comptroller to settle those accounts.

"By the North Carolina Assembly Session of 1797-1798, back payments to twenty-five members of the Battalion who had submitted individual memorials and final settlements had been made." [Underhill Ellis was among the twenty-five.]

All of which is simply to suggest that Underhill Ellis who performed the marriage of Elvira Chatham and Isaac Roberts Jr. in Sumter District, SC, 1807, may have come to Sumter from Wake Co, NC, since a person by that name made a depostition there (Wake) in 1798.

Wake County was adjacent to counties in which Chathams and/or Cheathams are known to have lived within a few years of Underhill Ellis' 1798 deposition. [See enclosed map, census data, and Revolutionary pension applications.] Whether these isolated bits of information provide a link between Ch(e)athams of this area of NC and the Chatham-Roberts group of Sumter District, SC, I won't conclude, but it's another area to investigate.

Dear Darla,

I am sending you family sheets for my line — all information has been verified. I cannot go back any further than William Darius whom we believe to be the son of Darius and Elizabeth Carklin. I do have some questions:

Where did you get the birthdate for Thomas Chatham. Because of land records from N.C. I've always felt that Winney Barnes Chatham and Thomas Chatham were sister and brother-in-law and lived side by side. The date on deeds do not fit for him to have been born in 1775 since he was in N.C. with family - Martha and children - in 1790. You also list some children of Thomas. What was your source for children's names. My information on Thomas shows him living alone in Greene Co.

I too feel that Clayborne

Chatham

is the son of Thomas since he named first child Thomas and second child Martha. (It was a custom to name first child after father and mother). But then I find something strange about Darius. Census records (1820) show a male child in Darius household too old to be son of Darius and Elizabeth Conklin (md in 1812). Because of Darius's age could Darius have been married prior to Conklin marriage? Could this other child be Claybourne? I hardly think so, but we cannot account for this male child in Darius's household - for that matter we cannot account for any of Darius' children. ~~Note that my William Darius and Claybourne are about the same age.~~ ~~after checking~~

ok

There are so many possibilities. I've tried putting them into generation categories - This is what I've come up with -

Dear Mrs. Strickland

I am making some progress on the book regarding Thomas Chatham (SC, 1801) who was the brother of Martha Chatham who married James Warden and lived in Hancock County. You will recall that their daughter, Elvira, married a Stephen Marson whose daughter, Lydia, married Woods Megehee in Picayune. Thomas Chatham, if you recall, married in Marengo County, AL and came to Texas in 1834.

I do not recall if I sent you a skeleton descendant list of James and Martha Warden. Since they are not the main line I am pursuing I have had to put this on the back burner. In the event any one in your locality has an interest in this family and would care to send me the result of their work, I would be happy to receive it, or to correspond with them.

I hope to finish my work by the end of the year. It will include what I have on the Warden family, but will certainly not be complete.

Sincerely,

Don Pugh

To: Chatham, Cheatham, Chittam, etc., researchers

Dear Jean,

All my correspondents have been so forthcoming of late that I'm having trouble keeping up my end. My recent Chatham news follows:

Joe Chatham, formerly of Salem, now Roanoke, VA, has written to advise me of his move to a retirement community. [Born 1909 Elkin NC, Joe is s/o Joe Murphy Chatham, Sr. > James Owen Chatham > Martin Chatham, 1803 VA-1873 Wilkes Co NC.] He's not actively researching, but I sent him an updated packet of charts to show what I know of descendants of Martin Chatham, and he has graciously offered to fill in some of my blanks relating to his line. Joe has a fine-tuned sense of humor; he addresses me as "Cousin Maybe." Writing during one of several deep freezes this memorable winter, and explaining his relocation, Joe quipped, "There's only one more CHATHAM in this branch . . . like the trees outside my window, this limb is laden with ice and may fall. If I find any of your roots, I'll send them along."

Russell Chatham [Marcellus D. Chatham > William. L. Chatham > James R. Chatham > Walker Chatham > George H. Ch(e)atham, 1766 VA- 1800 NC] has been in close touch with Tom B. Chatham (Jr) of Mexia TX [Thomas Beall Chatham Sr > Roland Kinchen Chatham > George Kinchen Chatham > George H. Ch(e)atham, 1766 VA - 1800 NC]. Tom has a treasury of family papers and pictures, copies of which may be available before long in the archive collections of Texas A & M, Alma Mater of both Tom and Russell. The two family historians (Russell & Tom) have discovered that the current-generation (laser) color copiers make excellent reproductions of old photos. Mary and Russell have been working with others on tombstone transcriptions, both in the field and at the organizational stage. Russell

gets the folks to show up in working gear, and Mary sees to feeding the assembly. Russell is also engaged in reviewing, reorganizing and moving his research files into new space. My best wishes to Russell (and sympathy to Mary?) as this project proceeds.

Don Pugh has a fine first draft of his first chapter on descendants of Thomas Chatham [1801 SC - 1890 Montgomery Co, TX]. Don, you're putting us all to shame! An 1852 letter from James and Martha Warden of Hancock Co, MS to Thomas Chatham of Montgomery Co, TX, establishes to virtual certainty that Martha and Thomas were sister/brother. That Martha (Chatham) Warden named a daughter Elvira suggests (or does it?) two more siblings: (1) Elvira Chatham who married Isaac Roberts Jr. Sumter District SC 1807, and moved southwestward with the Chatham-Roberts group 1811, and (2) Spencer Chatham who married Mary Elizabeth Roberts and left SC in the same party 1811. (Is there positive proof that Spencer and Elvira were brother/ sister?) Finding Warden descendants with family records might answer a lot of our questions about early Chatham lines. Please keep eyes pealed for this name.

I have an early, new, unidentified Chatham woman, of SC and Indiana Territory! Quite by accident, since the index of my source shows no CHATHAM or variants, I came across a Laurens District deed 1812, dower signed by Mary Chattam Templeton. Everything I know about her to date is shown in 3 pages attached. Where can we fit her into a Chatham family??? Mickey Eddlemon, have you come across a Chatham-Templeton connection in Indiana? The queries have already gone out; cross your fingers that there's some response. Would you suggest other destinations for the query?

And re Hezekiah Davis: all the sightings I've gathered for men of this name have served only to convince me that it must have been a popular alias, like the proverbial "John Smith." He's everywhere I look! Where was he before Putnam County, GA? Where did he go? What was the relationship of his wife Polly Chatham to George, Walker, and Darius Chatham, all of whom married within a couple of years in the same county?

As to my research of John Chittam, Revolutionary pensioner of Lincoln Co, NC, and his projected ancestral line to Phillip & Mary Chittam of Augusta Co, VA . . . Russell Chatham's notes (Chalkley's Augusta Co, VA records) show Phillip Chittam's widow Mary remarrying a William Patrick. Lewis Boutwell's notes (Holcomb's Anson Co, NC book) show a transaction on "Estate of Phillip Chittam to William Henry . . . William Henry delivered to the mother of the orphans." In answer to my queries through Old Tryon Co, NC and York Co, SC genealogical societies, I've heard from a descendant of each, William Patrick and William Henry, both of whom lived along that border area of SC/NC late 1700s. Both men are apparently well-versed in their lines, and neither can expand upon the Chittam connection. They've both encountered the "Hezekiah Davis" or "John Smith" research problem, namely multiple men of the same name in the same area as their William Patrick and William Henry ancestors. I think they're both intrigued, however, since both their lines were from Augusta Co, VA. Maybe we'll hear something more from them in future. I've also contacted a Butch Chittum of Culloden, W. Virginia, whom my brother met in the course of business. This is my one and only contemporary Chittum contact; hope something good comes of the effort.

And I've been monitoring the genealogy bulletin board on Prodigy a little more closely. Since my surnames of interest are numbering fifty-something at present, this is a time-consuming operation, and I'm not sure about the return. Like mining for gold . . . I keep hoping to strike it rich!

I have been relatively free to pursue the research lately, and I've buried myself in it INSTEAD of corresponding. Thanks for your patience, for keeping me posted with regard to your own investigations. Wishing you all best luck with your various ongoing searches . . . maybe the current IGI, all states surname Chatham, Cheatham, etc. (enclosed) will turn up some leads.

Warmest regards,

Margaret

Dear Darla,

I was excited to get your letter. The more people we have with input into the Chatham line will surely help answer some of the questions and help in tracing the Chatham line.

I got home yesterday from having out patient surgery when I got your letter. This will only be a brief reply. My sister and I work on our genealogy together and the Chatham folders are at her house. I will get them and send you information on our line.

We descend from William D. Chatham (sometimes referred to as William 'Pen' Chatham because of his beautiful handwriting.) We first pick him up in Lauderdale Co./Clarke Co. Miss in early 1840's. He is married to Betsy Wolfe, daughter of James Wolfe. (The Wolfes migrated from Copiah Co. Miss to Clark Co in late 1830's.) William D. Chatham joins a church in Clarke Co and in the church minutes it states that he is from Evans Creek.

Evans Creek is in Green Co. Miss and the Roberts who married Winnie Barnes Chatham and the Chathams/Roberts family have settled on Evans Creek in 1820's - 30's.
Therefore we feel that our William
D. is related to Winnie Barnes
Chatham Roberts, Thomas Chatham and Darius, Spencer etc. We also know from census records that William D. was born in Georgia. And that Darius married Elizabeth Carklin in Putnum County, Georgia a year before William D. was born.

Without looking at our files on the Chatham's I hesitate to quote any exact dates or information, but I will send you family sheets on William D and his children and other information we have on the Chatham/Roberts families as soon as I can get the information from our records.

Sincerely,
Virginia England

Questions

Do you know that Clayborne is the son of Thomas Chatham (b. 1775)?

Is it possible that Thomas could also be the father of Darius?

Could this Thomas be a brother-in-law to Winnie Barnes Chatham, since they live side by side in North Carolina?

Do you have the names of Clayborne Chatham's children?

Chathams honored with special day

Sunday, April 24, was a day set aside by the Congregation of Ellisville First United Methodist Church to honor their pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. J.W. Chatham. During the morning worship service, Dr. Tony Bounds, chairperson of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee, presented a special love offering to the Chathams. Then from 2:00-4:00 p.m. the retiring couple was honored with a reception in the church fellowship hall, where friends, family members, and present and past parishioners gathered to pay tribute to Rev. Chatham for his 45 years of dedicated service to the ministry. Rev. Chatham has been the pastor of the Ellisville church for five years and has also served as director of the Wesley Foundation at Jones County Junior College and as chaplain of Ellisville State School.

Rev. Chatham graduated from Mississippi State University and received a master's degree from the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. He began his ministry as director of the Wesley Foundation at Mississippi State.

Rev. Chatham has pastored in Minter City, Glendora, Sardis, Okolona, Amory, Greenwood St. John's, Louisville, Greenville Trinity, and Ellisville, and was District Superintendent for the Senatobia District. As an exchange minister, he served Winchmore Hill Methodist Church in London, England.

In addition to serving on many boards and committees of the Mississippi Annual Conference, Rev. Chatham is a member of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Administrative Council and the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious concerns.

Betty Jane Chatham, an artist, graduated from Mississippi University for Women. She has also studied painting at the Memphis Academy of Art and Delta State University. Mrs. Chatham's most recent exhibition was at the Lauren Rogers Museum of Art during the fall of 1993. An active member of many boards and committees of the Annual Conference, Mrs. Chatham has recently completed four years as president of the Mississippi Conference United Methodist Women.

relative to letting a contract for the additional 9 miles of seawall did not report to the board and will probably not report until Saturday afternoon. Woods Brothers Construction Company was before the commission but no definite arrangements were made with them.

The board will give other companies an opportunity to come before them before the contract is let if it is to be let at private contract.

It is probable that no contract will be let for additional seawall construction at this meeting of the board, said the president of the seawall commission.

AMBASSADOR OPPOSES PLAN

Myron T. Herrick Considers Presentation of Wreath by French Veterans a Slap at United States.

(By The Associated Press)

Paris, July 8.—Ambassador Myron T. Herrick is perturbed at the decision of the Association of American Volunteers in the French army to take part in the proposed demonstration Sunday in opposition to ratification of the American debt settlement.

Under present plans, the American Volunteers, will be stationed before the Alan Seeger monument in the Place De Etats Unis, where they will receive a wreath from the French Veterans Association as it marches past.

Ambassador Herrick said today that the posters announcing the parade were a direct slap at the United States and at himself. Consequently he feels that if Americans take any part in the parade, it will embarrass him officially. He felt that it was unthinkable that the American volunteers would bear a share in the demonstration.

Members of the American Volunteers, on the other hand assert that their acceptance of the wreath at the Alan Seeger monument is the only way to take the anti-American sting out of the demonstration. They said that this action would make it appear that the French veterans were paying tribute to the American soldiers. The members declared that the parade had been planned a long time ago, and that they were inclined to believe that the government could not prevent it.

While at the depot in Gulfport, Mr. Bose and Mr. Cachot were met by Dean P. Holmes, Mississippi railroad commissioner and Frank Sullivan, passenger agent of the Pullman Company with headquarters in Chicago. While the meeting of these men was informal business matters were discussed.

The development program along the Mississippi Coast, said Mr. Bose, is making it necessary to plan many improvements which will have to be made to meet the growing conditions.

wave all party spirit, party intrigue and political strife, in the election of members for the convention.

We should on this occasion come to the poles fully devested of former prejudices, prepared to sacrafice our private feeling to the public good. Let us act in this matter as in religious morality, let us know no man by his political creed. Let not the political creed, but the rectitude of his life; the integrity of his views; the honesty of his resolves; the soundness of his judgement, matured by past experience. The dignity of his deportment; the respectability of his years, rendered venerable, if not holy by the moral simplicity of his public and private relations through life. Let these I say, and not his political creed, be the admeasurement of the candidate's qualifications, and rest assured, sir, that in that case we will have a convention of sages, that the Solons of antiquity might gaze on with honest pride, as fit instruments under the influence of an allwise Providence to digest and revise a salutary code of laws for an enlightened and intelligent people such as our State can boast of. But it may be asked can we find such men. Yes must be the reply—we have some of the old conventionalists yet living in the vicinity of Baton Rouge, we have one such, in the person of Col. P. Hicky, let him be put in nomination; let the people call on him in a respectful manner, and he will not, he can not refuse to serve them, when the interest of posterity requires his services.

D. R. W.

MR. EDITOR—A writer in your last paper, presuming I might be thought of as one of the candidates to be run for a seat in the Convention to amend our State Constitution, has propounded to me a question touching the powers of that body, when assembled. I do not deny the right of any citizen to learn my opinion on this or any other subject connected with the public interest, but as it is not at all probable, I shall be selected a candidate, for this high honor, by the wire-pullers on such matters, I must decline answering your correspondent. As citizen of the State, identified by interest and affection with her present and future prosperity. I feel in common with my neighbors, a step is about to be taken, of the highest import to her welfare. If the spirit of party is suffered to enter the Convention; if moderation, reason and justice are not made the sole guides of its counsels, the people will forever lament the vote they cast in its favor. Hoping this will be the last occasion my name shall be mentioned in connection with this subject, by my too partial friend, subscribe myself.

Respectfully, your ob't. serv't.

J. M. BRUNOT.
